Franklin

Thefts

• Kroger, 1701 N. Morton St.: A Coca-Cola employee reported that someone broke into a vending machine in front of the store Tuesday or Wednesday and stole all of the money and most of the sodas.

• Wal-Mart Supercenter, 2125 N. Morton St.: A customer reported that someone stole a flat tire from the bed of his truck between 6:15 and 7:15 p.m. Thursday.

Property-damage accidents

• 6:43 p.m. Thursday — Westview and Lakeside drives

• 1:40 p.m. Thursday — Northwood Elementary School parking lot, 965 Grizzly Cub Drive

Greenwood

Burglary

• 700 block of Clearview Drive: A man reported that his ex-wife called him at 1:10 a.m. Friday and told him that she was inside his apartment and that he should look at his truck. The man told police that he found numerous CDs and clothing scattered on the seat, floor and outside of his truck. Two knives had been stolen from the truck. He returned to his apartment with police and discovered numerous items scattered on the floor of his living room, CDs and DVDs broken, and a pillow ripped open. In a bathroom, shaving cream was on the walls and bathtub and toiletries were in the toilet. A Xbox video game system and two bottles of alcohol were stolen, a closet door was taken off the hinges, and clothes, DVDs and dirty dishes were scattered on the floor of a bedroom.

Criminal mischief

• 1600 block of Cornwell Court: A woman reported that someone keyed her vehicle sometime Wednesday.

Property-damage accident

• 9:42 a.m. Wednesday — Sentiment Lane and Classic Drive

Johnson County

Burglary

• 1200 block of Windswept Drive, White River Township: A construction supervisor reported that someone entered a home under construction and stole a refrigerator, washer and dryer between 5:50 p.m. Wednesday and 7:15 a.m. Thursday.

Battery

• Johnson County jail: An inmate reported facial injuries, including bruises and cuts from a fall about 10:15 a.m. Wednesday. Officers reviewed security video and determined that the inmate had been involved in an altercation with another inmate, who also suffered bruises and cuts to his face and hand. One of the inmates was transported to the hospital for treatment of his wounds. Police plan to charge both inmates with battery causing injury.

• Custer Baker Middle School: A man reported that a boy hit his daughter with a metal bar during a football game at the school Wednesday. Police observed bruising on the girl's lower forearm. The school was informed of the incident.

In recognition of Women's History Month, Franklin College Salutes...

Ms. Fields resides in Indianapolis where she is the General Counsel of International Operations for Eli Lilly and Company.

She began her legal career as a law clerk for the firm of Jones & Loveall. After graduation, she clerked for the Hon. James B. Young at the Indiana Court of Appeals. Prior to joining Eli Lilly and Company, she was an attorney for Stewart Irwin Gilliom Fuller & Meyer. Her first position with the pharmaceutical company was in the area of commercial and securities law. In 1988, she became General Counsel and Secretary for one of Lilly's former device companies Physio-Control. She returned to Lilly in the International Operations where she remains.

As a student at Franklin College, she participated in Student Congress, Alpha Senior Honor Society, The Almanack yearbook staff and Tri Delta. Her commitment to leadership continues as a member of the Franklin College Board of Trustees. In addition, she's a previous volunteer for class fundraising efforts. While she was on foreign assignment in London, she assisted Franklin College students who studied in London during their winter term project.

Christine S. Fields
Franklin College Class of 1974
General Counsel, International Operations
Eli Lilly and Company

Her professional memberships include the American Bar Association, Indiana Bar Association, Pharmaceutical International Law Legal Association, and American Corporate Counsel Association.

In reflecting on her education at Franklin College, Ms. Fields said, "Franklin College's liberal arts education has provided me with a lifelong foundation for learning, so critical to my professional and personal growth. The professors and staff created one of the best support environments for learning which has continued well beyond my college years. The sense of the Franklin College community remains with me."
