Regionals

Madison Shave (20-3) at 10 a.m., and Hauser (21-2) plays Lanesville (20-3) at noon.

Both championship games are at 8 p.m. Saturday.

Coordinating two regionals has kept Heminger busy.

After Franklin defeated Center Grove in the Southport Sectional championship game Saturday, Heminger had to overhaul his plan for the week. He e-mailed about 30 Franklin staff members and volunteers Sunday and insisted they make the trip to Hinkle Fieldhouse to support the Grizzly Cubs.

He said Monday that half decided to go and half stay, and he spent most of the day securing new volunteers to take their place as scoreboard operators, ticket-takers, supervisors, security personnel and hospitality workers.

Heminger couldn't even attend the Grizzly Cubs' regional meeting at Hinkle Fieldhouse on Monday because he hosted Franklin's own regional meeting. Coach Dave Clark represented the Grizzly Cubs at Monday's regional meeting in Indianapolis.

Heminger also has been busy coordinating practice times for Franklin and three of the four teams coming to Franklin for the Class A regional. And he's been trying to get phone lines
