Three

It's the fourth consecutive year Indianapolis has let a starting linebacker test free agency, and three of them have signed lucrative deals with new teams. Mike Peterson joined Jacksonville in 2003 and Marcus Washington signed with the Washington Redskins in 2004. Rob Morris re-signed with the Colts in the summer.

Indianapolis did re-sign starting middle linebacker Gary Brackett to a four-year deal on March 1 and then offered a one-year ten-also had 12 rebounds and a steal. "It's what being a team is all about."

Harrison, who reached double figures for the seventh time in the past nine games, set the table for the fourth-quarter surge.

Indiana led 66-62 heading into the final period. Harrison scored the Pacers' first nine points of the quarter, making all four of his field-goal attempts and setting a tone for the closing minutes.

"David was just able to seemingly will the ball into the basket a couple of times," Carlisle said. "Those were big plays because Orlando was coming back on us."
