NEW YORK — Stocks rose modestly Wednesday after investors bobbed and weaved with every word of new Federal Reserve Chairman Ben Bernanke's testimony before Congress.

The Dow Jones industrial average rose 30.58, or 0.28 percent, to 11,058.97 after rising 136 points Tuesday.

Broader stock indicators were slightly higher. The Standard & Poor's 500 index rose 4.47, or 0.35 percent, to 1,280.00, and the Nasdaq composite index rose 14.26, or 0.63 percent, to 2,276.43.

Advancing issues outnumbered declining issues by roughly 2 to 1 on the New York Stock Exchange.

Stocks' advance was slight because "we had a big move (Tuesday) and we need to digest it," said Greg Church, chief investment officer of Church Capital Management in Yardley, Pa.
