Warriors blister Hornets

Outmatched Howe musters only 21 in 50-point defeat

Daily Journal staff report

Whiteland sailed to a 71-21 win Saturday against visiting Howe.

The Hornets (0-12), playing with only five players were no match for the Class 3A No. 8 Warriors (12-3).

After jumping to a 22-4 first quarter lead, Whiteland girls basketball coach Bill Hogue realized early it would be a good day to give his bench some playing time.

Sophomores Sandra Condra and Courtney Wilson combined for 21 first-half points as the Warriors went to intermission with a 42-14 lead.

Wilkerson finished with 11 points, and Condra had 10.

Next up for the Warriors is a Tuesday home contest with Washington.

Indian Creek back on track

Despite some first-half jitters and turnovers, the visiting Indian Creek girls basketball team defeated Mid-Hoosier Conference foe Waldron 52-49 Saturday.

The Braves held a slim lead at the half 21-20, and put together solid efforts in the third and fourth quarters to hang on for the win.

"Although we started a little slow, our kids shook off the early mistakes and didn't quit," Indian Creek coach Andi Ferris said.

The victory gives Indian Creek an overall record of 7-8 and 4-1 in the conference.

Junior guard Tracie Walters led Indian Creek in scoring with 20 points. Junior Courtney Von Stein added 16.

The Braves' next game is Tuesday at Triton Central.

But this year, Kitchel was glad the outcome went in his team's favor.

"To get our first (championship) at home means a lot, especially against a team that we kind of gave it away to last year," Kitchel said.
