

Community foundation selects members for board

Dean Abplanalp, Jerry Engle, Larry Koenes and Mitzi Martin are the newest members of the Johnson County Community Foundation's board of directors.

Each new member brings diversity in experience and expertise to help develop and maintain the foundation's work, said Sandy Daniels, the group's president and chief executive officer.

Abplanalp is vice president/branch manager of A.G. Edwards & Sons.

Engle serves as president and chief financial officer of Lincoln Bank.

Koenes is president of The Skillman Corp.

Martin works as a partner with Baker and Daniels.

The new members have been elected to a four-year term without compensation.

Boy Scouts collecting food for needy people

The Scouting for Food drive will take place today through March 18.

Boy Scouts will participate in the food drive in two ways.

Scouting for Food informational door hangers will be distributed today. Bags of food will then be collected March 18.

In addition, area Kroger stores will accept donations in the form of pre-filled bags available for purchase. Patrons may also leave food from their home at marked collection areas at Kroger stores.

All donations will be distributed to area food banks and pantries. The goal is to collect 80,000 to 100,000 items.

Grandparents, kids invited to free movie

Grandparents are invited to take their grandchildren to a free showing of "The Adventures of Robin Hood," starring Errol Flynn and Olivia de Havilland.

The movie will begin at 2 p.m. Sunday at the Artcraft Theatre, 57 N. Main St., Franklin.

The event, sponsored by Asset Preservation Alliance, is open to all retirees and seniors even if they do not bring grandchildren. All children must be accompanied by an adult.

The event includes free drinks and popcorn.

Reservations are required and are being accepting through Saturday by calling 888-1240.

Artists have until Monday to enter show

Registration for the Ethos Art Show ends Monday at Franklin Parks and Recreation Department.

The show takes place March 18. Each artist may enter three pieces. The cost is $3 per entry. Ribbons and cash prizes will be awarded.

PET OF THE WEEK

Ben

Ben, a shepherd mix, is a friendly guy who needs a good home.

He's about 1 year old and is past the chewing puppy stage. He still has a lot of puppy in him, however, and loves to have his belly rubbed. He also likes to give hugs and kisses.

Ben is full-grown but could afford to put on a few pounds. He is neutered.

Visit Tractor Supply on U.S. 31 in Franklin from 5 to 7 p.m. Thursdays, when the Humane Society of Johnson County hosts a weekly adoption event.

Call the Humane Society of Johnson County at 346-7001 for an adoption application.
