for the final time with under 6 minutes to go. Vaden, whose three-game 3-point streak ended midway in the second half, then hit two straight shots from inside the arc to put the Hoosiers on top for good.

"I try to let the offense come to me. I don't try to force anything," he said. "In the first half, I didn't really have any open looks. ... I just went out there and tried to be more aggressive, and it worked."

After another basket by Horton, who led Michigan with 20 points, Vaden
