FRANKLIN

Committee seeks input on high school programs

Franklin parents and community members are invited to get involved in shaping the new high school.

A committee charged with redesigning programs and curriculum to be used at the new high school has been meeting this year, and now the members want community input.

An upcoming meeting will give community members information about the redesign process and get their ideas about how to improve the high school.

The meeting will be at 7 p.m. March 28 in the Franklin Community High School cafeteria, 625 Grizzly Cub Drive.

For more information, call Christina Blackwell at 738-5800 or Scott Martin at 738-5704.
