Former Tech quarterback Vick arrested on firearms charges

Marcus Vick, booted from the Virginia Tech football team last week for his behavior on and off the field, was charged Monday with pulling a gun on three teenagers during an altercation in a restaurant parking lot.

VICK

Vick, who played quarterback for the Hokies, surrendered at the Suffolk, Va., magistrate's office after three warrants were issued for his arrest Sunday, Magistrate Lisa Noel said.

The 21-year-old Vick was charged with three misdemeanor counts of brandishing a firearm and was released on $10,000 bond.

Police said the parents of a 17-year-old boy reported that Vick pointed a weapon at their son and two others during an altercation at a McDonald's in Suffolk, a southeastern Virginia city where Vick's mother lives, Sunday night.

On Friday, Virginia Tech kicked Vick off the team, citing the cumulative effects of numerous legal problems.

Notre Dame tight end Fasano decides to enter NFL draft

Tight end Anthony Fasano decided his dream of playing in the NFL outweighed trying to win a national championship at Notre Dame.

The 6-foot-4, 257-pound Fasano, one of the nation's top tight ends, announced Monday he would forgo his final year of eligibility at Notre Dame and enter the NFL draft.

"Being in this position is a lifelong dream of mine," he said. "I realize I am finally able to reach it and I'm going to take advantage of that. It's been a long, hard decision."
