Woodmen cruise to victory

Daily Journal staff report

GREENFIELD

Senior center A.J. Edds made his return to the Greenwood boys basketball team one to remember in a 64-38 rout of Greenfield-Central on Saturday. Edds, who broke his foot in the final game of Greenwood's football season, came off the bench to lead the Woodmen with a double-double, 18 points and 11 rebounds.

LOCAL SPORTS

Owls' Cameron Mousa sank both attempts to win the game for Seymour. Franklin had three players in double figures, senior Adam Miller netted 19 points, Gordon added 16, and Adrian Moss scored 15. Mousa led Seymour with 24 points. The defending Johnson County tournament champion Grizzlies begin this year's tourney Tuesday night against Edinburg at Center Grove.

GIRLS BASKETBALL

Trojans blast Rushville

Center Grove (11-2) extended its winning streak to nine games Saturday as the host Trojans defeated Rushville 57-35. The Trojans held a slim four-point margin at intermission but limited the Class 3A Lions (12-2) to just four points in the third quarter and stretched the lead to 39-25. Senior center Jenny Gray led the Trojans with 17 points. Senior forward Molly Lauck was effective on the inside, adding 14 points.

Whiteland edges Shelbyville

It took an extra period but Whiteland pulled out a 70-65 victory at Shelbyville thanks to sharp-shooting senior point guard Jessica Huffman's 28 points. The Golden Bears' Dana Gardner sent the game to overtime with a last-second shot to tie the game at 56. But the Warriors rallied to score 14 points in the extra period for the win. Whiteland (11-2) registered seven 3-pointers for the game as Huffman and sophomore Sandra Condra each knocked down three and junior forward Brittney Wilson added one.

Lancers win third straight

Edinburg boasted six players in double figures Saturday in a 68-58 win at Oldenburg Academy. The Lancers (4-4) got off to a slow start in the first period and trailed 13-9, but caught fire in the next three quarters. Senior guard Tyler Cook led the Lancers in scoring with 13 points. Also in double digits were junior forward Brandon Cravens, who dropped in 12, sophomore forward Josh Burton, junior guard Kevin McGaha and senior center Corey Buck, each with 11, and senior forward Jeremy Hadley with 10 points.

Edinburg begins play Tuesday night in the Johnson County Tournament against the Franklin Grizzly Cubs (3-6).

Franklin edged in frenetic OT

For the second straight night, Franklin pushed its opponent to overtime. And for the second straight night, the outcome was a loss for the Grizzly Cubs. After dropping a triple-overtime game to Decatur Central on Tuesday, the Cubs lost another OT heartbreaker on Saturday, 66-65 to Seymour. Franklin had a one-point lead near the end of the overtime period, but the Grizzlies' Ben Gordon was called for a defensive foul at the buzzer. Cubs coach Dave Clark, attempting to throw the free-throw shooter off his game, took all three of Franklin's timeouts. The gambit failed, and the

Grizzlies top the Bears

Gardner topped the Class 4A Golden Bears with 25 points. Whiteland will host visiting Mooresville at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday.

Cubs overwhelm Panthers

Franklin had little trouble Saturday in a 42-17 win at Jennings County as the Grizzly Cubs limited the Panthers to single-digit scoring in all four quarters.

Franklin's defensive pressure throughout the game forced the Panthers into 27 turnovers.

Coach Walt Raines, in his 18th year at Franklin, used all 12 players on the Cubs' roster to the starters some rest.

Junior Nancy Miller, a 5-foot-11 forward, led the Cubs in scoring with 13 points. Freshman guard Lindsay Vandivier added nine points including two 3-pointers.

Next up for Franklin is a home contest Wednesday night against Perry Meridian.

Indian Creek upsets Chargers

The Indian Creek girls basketball team put together one of its most impressive outings of the season Saturday with a 54-51 defeat of North Decatur.

The Mid-Hoosier Conference win boosted Indian Creek's record to 3-1 in the conference and 6-7 overall.

Braves' coach Andi Ferris said her team showed a great deal of toughness in the upset win as the host Braves hit some key free-throws down the stretch.

Junior guard Tracie Walters topped the Braves in scoring with 13 points. Junior forward Courtney Von Stein and freshman forward Alli Mitchell each had nine points. Mitchell also added six rebounds.

Indian Creek's next outing is Thursday night at Speedway.

Franklin takes first

The Grizzly Cubs were 5-0 for a first-place finish Saturday at their second annual Super 6 Invitational. One of Michigan's top-ranked wrestling teams, Holt High School finished second at 4-1.

Three of Franklin's wrestlers remain undefeated for the season. Seniors Brad Gallagher at 119 pounds, Mike Reese at 160 pounds and Cody Johnson at 215 pounds all went 5-0.

Whiteland goes 2-3

Whiteland extended its overall record to 16-9 after Saturday's Avon Super 6 Invitational. Whiteland defeated West Lafayette Harrison 44-29 and Greencastle 42-33. The Warriors dropped dual matches to Avon, Ben Davis and Plainfield.

Senior Justin Cooper at 189 pounds and junior Matt Fields at 112 pounds remain undefeated this season.
