The Indiana Pacers' Fred Jones, left, blocks a shot by the Boston Celtics' Brian Scalabrine in Boston on Friday.

Celtics hold on to defeat Pacers by one

Paul Pierce had 31 points and eight assists and hit the key shot down the stretch to lead the Boston Celtics to a 99-98 victory against the Indiana Pacers on Friday night.

After Fred Jones tied the game at 94 with 1:34 remaining, he missed the subsequent free throw that would have given the Pacers the lead.

Delonte West added 17 points and seven assists for the Celtics, who won for the sixth time in nine tries after dropping six in a row.

Women

Peja Stojakovic led the Pacers with 24 points and Jackson added 20 points.

For Capital, ranked No. 11 in Division III, Heitkamp had 19 points. Todd had 11.

Capital plays in tonight's championship game against Hope College of Michigan (28-1). Hope eased its way to the final game with a 72-51 victory against Denison (Ohio).
