

ON THE RECORD

Police/fire

Franklin

Battery

• 2800 block of Fieldstone Court: A woman reported at 8:10 p.m. Thursday that her father grabbed her and put her in a head lock. When she tried to run away from him, he hit her in the face and caused her to fall down, she told police. Officers saw several red marks on the woman's neck and on her cheek. The man was arrested on a charge of battery.

Theft

• Franklin Storage, 771 S. State St.: A man reported Thursday that someone broke into his storage shed within the past 30 days and stole a tool box containing tools worth about $2,000.

Criminal mischief

• 500 block of West Jefferson Street: A woman reported that someone spray-painted two windows on her home and the windshield of a friend's vehicle that was parked at the home between 11:30 p.m. Thursday and 2:25 a.m. Friday. They reported hearing a suspicious noise around 12:30 a.m. Friday.

Greenwood

Shoplifting

• American Eagle, 1251 U.S. 31 North: An employee reported that a woman asked him to get an item out of the storeroom about 6:15 p.m. Tuesday. When he returned, the woman was gone. Another customer told the employee that the woman and a man had put several clothing items in a bag and left the store. An inventory check showed that about $1,150 worth of clothing had been stolen.

• Radio Shack, 1251 U.S. 31 North: An employee reported Wednesday that someone stole a laptop computer from the store Feb. 17.

Criminal mischief

• Kroger, 2200 Independence Drive: A manager reported about 6 p.m. Wednesday that he saw someone kicking a vending machine outside the store.

Personal-injury accident

• 8 p.m. Tuesday — Madison Avenue and Main Street: Zachary D. Meier, 16, Greenwood; Joshua M. Sullivan, 18, Greenwood. A passenger in Sullivan's vehicle, Leah Carlisle, 15, Greenwood, complained of head pain.

New program directors
to lead college efforts

Daily Journal staff report

Franklin College recently hired two new employees for its professional development department.

Cynthia Helmich will be coordinator for the AmeriCorps Program. AmeriCorps is a network of local, state and national service programs that connects people in intensive service to help meet needs in education, public safety, health and the environment across the nation.

Helmich has worked for various social services organizations including the Boys and Girls Club, Big Brothers Big Sisters, the Court Appointed Special Advocate Program and the United Way.

Helmich and her husband, Steve, have three daughters.

The Community Alliance to Promote Education Program has added Kelli T. Knapp as coordinator. Her duties will include coordinating the efforts of the CAPE award, an initiative funded by the Lilly Endowment Inc., between the college and the Johnson County Community Foundation.

Knapp has spent the past 14 years working as a kindergarten teacher at Indian Creek Elementary in Trafalgar and is a resident of Johnson County. She and her husband, Jeff, have two daughters.
