Coffee, ice cream shop to open soon

A coffee and ice cream shop in Center Grove will bring the taste of Hawaii to its customers.

HulaBean will open at a new shopping center at State Road 135 and Olive Branch Road in early March. The restaurant will serve Kona coffee from Hawaii, all-natural ice cream, sandwiches and pastries, owner Michael Drouin said.

The only other HulaBean locations are in Hawaii.

Drouin plans to open five to 10 shops in central Indiana, he said. Next up will be a shop in the Geist area and then in downtown Indianapolis, he said.

Drouin, a New Castle resident, knows the owner of the original stores and wanted to bring the concept to Indiana. He picked the Center Grove strip mall because development is moving that direction, he said.

All products served at HulaBean will be made with natural, healthy ingredients, Drouin said. The ice will be made in Indianapolis, and breads will come from Scholar's Inn Bakehouse, he said.

HulaBean will be the first store to opening in the shopping center.

Stew's Bar and Grille will move into the strip mall from its current location at the Centre at Smith Valley shopping center.
