after their game-opening 13-0 run, but not nearly enough for the Cougars to overcome what had been a huge gap throughout as the hosts prevailed 72-62for their fourth straight victory.

Winners of four straight, the Braves (12-7) wrapped up conference play at 6-2 and ensured themselves a finish of no worse than third.

A lively offense that Indian Creek coach Andi Ferris had been seeking paid big dividends, with freshman guard Kylee Hamilton leading the way with 18 points.

Forwards Ashley Mathena and Alli

Creek's three starting guards, pitched in with 11.

That's the kind of game that we're best at, and we've been talking about getting back to our up-tempo, fullcourt game," Ferris said. "I think the last few games we've been really trying to emphasize that, and obviously I was very proud of the girls with the way we started out doing that." A three-point play by Mathena after only eight seconds had elapsed set the tone for the Braves, and Hamilton followed with a 3-point basket that was among her six points in her team's initial outburst

After the Cougars (4-14, 2-5 MHC) charged to within 20-16 early in the second quarter, Indian Creek went back up 13 in just three minutes and expanded its margin to 42-25 at halftime.

The Braves led by as much as 55-33 with 1:40 left in the third period after having scored eight straight points.

South Decatur, which trailed 62-41 with 6:40 to go, rallied to chop its deficit to eight late in the game.

"We did a very good job of pushing the ball up the floor early," Ferris said. "It seems like we got a little tired when we stopped doing that in the second half. It kind of showed in the second half that we were a little flat, and we were allowing too many penetration opportunities and shot opportunities." The Braves' intensity also carried over to their defense, as they forced a good percentage of South Decatur's 24 turnovers. Freshman Samantha Mathena, Indian Creek's fifth starter, came up with five steals, and Hamilton and Ashley Mathena stole the ball three times each.

Both teams were 26 for 58 from the field (48 percent), but the Braves got to the foul line more and made 18 of 28 attempts.

Sloppy ball handling and poor shooting is a recipe for disaster, and on Thursday night, Cougars 64 Edinburgh's girls basketball team Lancers 51 struggled with both. The Lancers (3-15) shot 32 percent from the field and committed 20 firsthalf turnovers in a 64-51 loss to Trinity Lutheran.

"We started out slow in the first and third quarters, and that killed us," Lancers coach Delena White said. "We have to cut down on our turnovers." Trinity Lutheran built a 10-point lead early in the third quarter, but Edinburgh cut the lead to four. But the Cougars (11-9) went on an 8-0 run and led by double digits the rest of the way. "We didn't play well, but we still had a chance to win," White said. "As bad as we played, the girls didn't give up. "The girls need some confidence. We play well enough to stay with people,

No. 12 Purdue 72 Northwestern 30

WEST LAFAYETTE — Lindsay Wisdom-Hylton scored 17 points, and Erin Lawless had 11 points and 11 rebounds in No. 12 Purdue's victory against Northwestern. Katie Gearlds scored 14 points, and Lakisha Freeman added 10 for the Boilermakers (19-3, 8-0 Big Ten). Nadia Bibbs led Northwestern (6-15, 0-8) with 15 points.

The Boilermakers were dominant in their tuneup for Monday's home game against No. 5 Ohio State. Purdue held Northwestern without a field goal for more than 8 minutes to start the second half and led 55-14 with 12:13 remaining.

No. 5 Ohio State 72 Indiana 62

COLUMBUS, Ohio — Brandie Hoskins scored 19 points and seemed to make all the clutch baskets to lead No. 5 Ohio State past Indiana.

Hoskins led the way as the Buckeyes took control late in the first half, and then she hit several big shots down the stretch to help Ohio State (18-1, 7-0 Big Ten) clinch the school's best start, exceeding the previous mark of 17-1 in 1973-74 on the way to an 18-2 season.

Star Allen added 16 points, including four late free throws for some breathing room, while Jessica Davenport had an off night but still finished with 12 points, seven rebounds, three assists and four blocks.

The win was Ohio State's 11th in a row since falling at No. 9 LSU on

Penn State 69

No. 23 Michigan State 58

STATE COLLEGE, Pa. — Amanda Brown scored 27 points, and Kam Gissendanner added 16 to lead Penn State to a victory against No. 23 Michigan State.

Brown scored 17 points during a 9-minute stretch in the first half. helping the Lions (10-11, 3-5 Big Ten) to a 36-29 halftime lead. Brianne O'Rourke added a season-high 15 points in the Nittany Lions' first victory against a ranked opponent since December 2005. Aisha Jefferson led Michigan State (15-5, 6-2) with 15 points.

No. 4 Tennessee 67 No. 15 Vanderbilt 57

NASHVILLE, Tenn. — Sidney Spencer scored a career-high 26 points, and No. 4 Tennessee pulled out a victory against 15th-ranked Vanderbilt. The Vols wanted to avoid a hangover coming off Monday night's 74-70 loss to top-ranked Duke. Last year, they followed up with a loss to unranked Kentucky. Their instate rival and a crowd of 12.009, many wearing Tennessee orange, helped them bounce back this time.

Tennessee (18-2, 5-0 Southeastern Conference) handed the Commodores (17-3, 4-1) their first loss at home this season but the 12th straight in this series. The Vols relied on their defense, forcing Vandy into a season-high 27 turnovers that Tennessee turned into 29 points.

No. 3 Maryland 76 Clemson 62

CLEMSON, S.C. — Kristi Toliver had 20 points and went 6 for 6 on 3pointers to lead No. 3 Maryland to its sixth straight victory against Clemson. Maryland (21-1, 5-1 Atlantic Coast Conference) is off to its best start in school history, breaking the tie with the 1991-92 team that opened 20-1. Toliver was a perfect on five 3-point attempts in the first half as the Terps (21-1, 5-1 Atlantic Coast Conference) built a 23-point lead.

No. 1 Duke 73 Florida State 60

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. — Alison Bales scored 15 points, and Carrem Gay had 14 to help top-ranked Duke remain undefeated with a victory against Florida State.

The 6-foot-7 Bales also had nine rebounds, while Gav's 12 first-half points helped the Blue Devils to a 36-28 lead at the break.

Duke (21-0, 6-0 Atlantic Coast Conference) showed no signs of a letdown after Monday's 74-70 win at fourth-ranked Tennessee, pulling away from the Seminoles late in the first half. The Blue Devils and North Carolina are tied for the ACC lead.

No. 10 Duke 68

No. 19 Clemson 66

DURHAM, N.C. — David McClure hit a layup as time expired to give No. 10 Duke a victory against No. 19 Clemson.

McClure's basket capped a wild final 13 seconds for the Blue Devils (17-3, 4-2 Atlantic Coast Conference), who blew a five-point lead before answering with the sophomore's stunning basket.

With the score tied at 66 after Vernon Hamilton erased the deficit with a layup and a 3-pointer, Josh McRoberts inbounded the ball with 4.4 seconds left to freshman Jon Scheyer, who pushed the ball near midcourt, then sent a pass ahead to McClure.

not sustain its effort in the final two minutes. The Grizzly Cubs were forced to foul, and Roncalli converted on 4 of 6 from the foul line for the victory.

Cubs coach Walt Raines said his team never quit. "If you stop and look at it, you would think that we would be really down about everything at 6-12," Raines said. ""The record is not that important to me right now.

This has been a great group to work with. They've worked very hard. It's one of those things that you know there's a silver lining there.'

Raines also noted that his team's biggest obstacle this season has been its youth. With only three seniors on the team, it proves to be a challenge.
