ON STAGE

Play performed in English, Spanish

Enjoy the comedy "Ten Percent of Molly Snyder (Marta Solano)" throughout January at the Phoenix Theatre, 749 N. Park Ave., Indianapolis.

Performances will be conducted in Spanish on Jan. 18, 19, 27 and 28.

The play stars actress Phebe Taylor as a woman who gets caught in a bureaucratic tangle when she tries to have the address on her driver's license changed.

The play, which runs through Jan. 28, will be at 7 p.m. Thursdays, 8 p.m. Fridays and Saturdays and 2 p.m. Sundays.

Tickets range from $25 to $29 for those 25 and older and are $15 for those 24 and younger.

During CheapSeats week, Jan. 4 to 7, all tickets are $15.

For more information and to order tickets, call 635-PLAY or visit www.phoenixtheatre.org.

Phebe Taylor, left, plays the title character in Richard Strand's "Ten Percent of Molly Snyder (Marta Solano)." Taylor's character is a young woman who gets ensnared in a red-tape nightmare when she tries to get the address on her driver's license corrected. Mathew Roland plays a bureaucrat.

FUND-RAISER

Design soup bowl to benefit housing effort

Start off the new year by giving back to the community.

Design and paint a one-of-a-kind soup bowl to help Habitat for Humanity of Johnson County.

Paint from 6 to 8 p.m. Jan. 18 at Franklin Parks and Recreation Department, 396 Branigin Blvd., for $14.

Donated bowls will be sold from 4 to 7 p.m. Feb. 18 at the Johnson County Fairgrounds. For $15, buy a soup bowl and enjoy an array of soups and desserts. Tickets will be available at Heartland Community Bank branches.

RELAY FOR LIFE

Join effort to cure cancer during annual fund-raisers

Johnson County residents will join in the Relay for Life fundraiser this year with events in both Franklin and Greenwood.

Relay for Life is a 24-hour event that will take place May 5 and 6 in Franklin and May 19 and 20 in Greenwood.

The event benefits the American Cancer Society. Activities include a cancer survivor celebration and victory lap and a lumina ceremony to honor and remember everyone touched by the disease.

Both Greenwood and Franklin will have kickoff events that allow the public to learn more about Relay for Life and how they can become part of the fund-raisers.

Franklin's kick-off will be at 6 p.m. Jan. 11 at Johnson Memorial Hospital. For more information, contact Enos Dotson at edotson@mitsubishicc.net.

Greenwood's kick off will be at 6:30 p.m. Jan. 15 at Greenwood Middle School. For more information, contact Megan Yturriaga at myturriaga@lutheranfamily.org.

Participants in a past Relay for Life event display their banner as they raise money for cancer research and awareness. Relay events this year will be conducted in Greenwood and Franklin in May. Organizational events are scheduled this month.
