Grizzlies eke out victory

By Greg Doddridge
DAILY JOURNAL SPORTS CORRESPONDENT

Battling the flu, Franklin College junior guard Courtney Swain didn't know how much she would play against Defiance.

And while she ended up playing 34 minutes Wednesday, it was the final minute that made all the difference.

Swain hit a midrange fadeaway jumper with 38 seconds remaining, and Franklin junior Kelly Snider made two free throws with 10 seconds left to give the Grizzlies a 55-52 victory against the visiting Yellow Jackets.

Franklin has won two straight, improving to 11-5 overall and 5-3 in the Heartland Collegiate Athletic Conference.

After coming down with the flu on Tuesday, Swain was just happy to get through the game.

"I slept all day (Wednesday) until game time," Swain said. "I was hoping to make it without getting sick."

Grizzlies 55, Yellow Jackets 52

She finished with 14 points on 6-of-10 shooting and had six rebounds. Snider also scored 14 points.

Franklin coach Kim Eiler called a set play for Swain on the game-winning basket. The play was to have Swain drive off a screen and go for a layup.

"But then Defiance sent the whole team on me, and I didn't know which way to go," Swain said.

She looked both ways before seeing the basket, taking her final shot.

"It was scary, but it went in," Swain said.

That wasn't the only scary moment for the Grizzlies as Defiance erased their 10-point halftime lead, forcing a 33-all tie on a 12-2 run in the first four minutes of the second half.

The Grizzlies got the lead back to six before Defiance came back.

Junior Katie McNamara gave Defiance a 52-51 lead with 55 seconds to go.

But that's all Defiance had as it missed two 3-pointers in the final 15 seconds.

The Yellow Jackets (10-7, 3-5 HCAC) made just 3 of 17 3-pointers in the game as Franklin held them to 20-of-57 shooting (35 percent). Meanwhile, the Grizzlies shot 16 of 20 from the free-throw line.

Eiler will take the hard-fought conference home win.

"We take it one game at a time because the conference is tough," Eiler said. "It wears on you."

Franklin freshman Heather Harper had 11 points.

Junior Kayla Mengerink led Defiance with 18 points. McNamara finished with 15 points.

Franklin senior guard Brittany Beehler did not play in Wednesday's game because of an ankle injury. Eiler said Beehler's status is day-to-day.

Franklin plays at 3 p.m. Saturday at HCAC opponent Bluffton.

FC can't keep up with Yellow Jackets

Special to the Daily Journal

DEFIANCE, Ohio

Franklin College trailed from the tip-off and fell to host Defiance College 66-49 in a Heartland Collegiate Athletic Conference men's basketball match-up Wednesday night.

The Grizzlies dropped to 4-4 in the HCAC and 8-8 overall, while the Yellow Jackets moved to 5-3 in league play and 11-4 in all contests.

Yellow Jackets 66, Grizzlies 49

Defiance shot 63 percent in the first half to give it a 39-27 halftime advantage.

The Grizzlies were unable to produce any kind of run in the second half as they found themselves behind by at least 10 points for the rest of the game.

Franklin had two players score in double figures, sophomores Dustin Marshall and Jace Redman with 11 and 10 points, respectively.

Junior Marty Young added eight points and a game-high 14 rebounds.

Anthony Pettaway scored a game-high 20 points.

Nick Sales added 12 points and 11 rebounds for the Yellow Jackets.

Franklin will return home Saturday to face HCAC foe Bluffton University in a 3 p.m. Alumni Day contest.

RALLY CAP

Former Greenwood resident Ed Coyle, who now lives in Cabo San Lucas, Mexico, owns and manages Rally Raid Mexico Team Yamaha, a two-motorcycle team entered in the Dakar Rally. The rally is a trek of nearly 6,000 miles from Lisbon, Portugal, to Dakar, Senegal, on the west coast of Africa. It began Jan. 6 and concludes Saturday. This is Coyle's first attempt at fielding a team in the annual event.

Daily Journal assistant sports editor and motorsports columnist Jeff Decker is following the progress of Rally Raid Mexico Team Yamaha. The following are excerpts from the team's Web site, www.rallyraidmex.com, written by Juan Diaz Rivera, Coyle's stepson.

One of the team's two riders, Sunny Irvine, remains in the race. After Tuesday's stage, he was 67th overall of 140 motorcycle riders remaining in the rally.

"Happy anniversary, Ed and Lety. What a way to spend your 20th wedding anniversary, in a lush Mauritanian airport parking lot packed into a tent!

"Assistance vehicles need to be out of the Bivi by 9 a.m., so we, led by Ron, break camp, run to breakfast with Sunny and head out for our 280km drive to Auyoun. Today will be easier on (Sunny's) foot, for which we are all thankful.

"In the Bivi this morning it's interesting to see the fatigue levels. Most riders sleep whenever they can; this includes after meals, before meals, etc…, and the rugs laid out for eating on the floor are littered with as many napping people as with people eating. Marc Coma, Cyril Dupres, Chris Blais, all the top names are in the Bivi this morning. I guess there were no cush hotels in Nema for them to escape out to.

"It's great to see how this race is as close to a walk on Grand Prix as you can get. Its sort of like being given the ability to get on the Monaco Grand Prix circuit with Alonso, Reikinen, Felipe Masa in Formula One. Yes, these guys have incredible support, T4 cars that enter the race and their only mission is to support these guys if they break. …

"Having said this, the lowliest privateer is on the same track and during some days will finish a special ahead of some of the pros because the desert can't tell the two apart. It's both humbling and uplifting to be in the midst of these competitors and their support teams. …

"Like most days the wind is blowing vigorously, creating a dust storm through the central courtyard around which the tents and rugs are set for eating. My (orange juice) looks like I put a teaspoon of cinnamon in it as the fine red dust accumulates on the surface. Some riders eat in the middle of the dust storm, just too tired to find an alternative. …

"Most of the towns we drive through today are the same ones that we drove through on the way into Nema.

"The only hazards we find are camels and donkeys, which are as common here as cows are in Baja. Like Baja, some of the towns are very poor; the difference is that the nice part of town here is like the worst part of the poorest town in Baja.

"Sunny did well yesterday. He is currently 27th in the 450 class, was 47th yesterday and 66th overall of 122 bikes left (66 cars and 22 trucks are left in those categories as the field is shrinking). …

"Although we are all happy (Sunny) just finishes each stage, he keeps this in his head somewhere. We are, all of us, silently daring to think we will make it to Dakar.

"Every time someone begins to say something to this end, everyone knocks on wood, and we all remember that at every moment something could prevent this, and we all silently hope it won't."

WEDNESDAY'S NCAA BASKETBALL

Villanova 102
No. 20 Notre Dame 87

VILLANOVA, Pa. — Freshman Scottie Reynolds scored 27 points, Curtis Sumpter had 21 and Dante Cunningham added 19 to lead Villanova to a victory against Notre Dame.

Mike Nardi scored 18 points, and the Wildcats (12-5, 2-3 Big East) hit 10 3-pointers to get a sorely needed conference victory heading into Saturday's game against No. 21 Texas.

Russell Carter hit six 3-pointers and scored 26 points, Colin Falls had five 3s and 17 points, and Luke Harangody scored 13 points for the Irish (15-3, 3-2) in their first trip to the Pavilion since 1996. Notre Dame lost for only the second time in its past 16 games.

Reynolds has been sensational lately, and he sparked the Wildcats down the stretch. He scored 12 of 17 points in one spurt late in the second half, helping the Wildcats keep the lead each time the Irish cut into it with another 3-pointer.

Reynolds' tip forced a turnover that led to Cunningham's reverse layup to put the lead back at 10.

Still, the Irish weren't finished, certainly not against the worst 3-point field goal defensive team in the Big East. After scoring 16 points in the first half, Carter hit a 3 for his first points in the second that sliced the lead to 77-69.

Another Notre Dame turnover, it had 13, was converted into a 2-on-1 fastbreak layup by Reynolds. Carter suddenly showed some life again from beyond the arc and hit one that made it 79-72 with 5½ minutes left. Carter finished 6 for 11 from 3-point range but made only three other field goals.

No. 7 Ohio State 73
Northwestern 41

COLUMBUS, Ohio — Ohio State's point-guard tandem of Mike Conley Jr., and Jamar Butler showed they could do more than pass in leading the seventh-ranked Buckeyes past Northwestern.

Conley scored a career-high 17 points, Butler added 16 and both had big baskets in the opening half as the Buckeyes (15-3, 3-1 Big Ten) pulled away to continue their home domination of the Wildcats.

Northwestern (10-8, 0-5) has not won in Columbus since Feb. 24, 1977, a string of 24 consecutive losses on the Buckeyes' home court.

Othello Hunter added 10 points for the Buckeyes, who have won five of their past six.

Conley had 10 assists, two more than Northwestern.

Ohio State freshman Greg Oden finished with five points, six rebounds and five blocked shots.

The Buckeyes have won the past 14 meetings with Northwestern, dating to 1998.

Craig Moore had 11 points for the Wildcats, who lost their fifth straight. They were coming off a 56-50 loss at home to No. 2 Wisconsin in which they led for much of the game.

The Wildcats played without leading scorer Kevin Coble, who missed his second game with a sprained ankle.

Illinois 64
Minnesota 52

MINNEAPOLIS — Warren Carter had 17 points, 11 rebounds and five assists to lead Illinois to a victory against Minnesota.

Carter and the Fighting Illini (14-6, 2-3 Big Ten), who extended their winning streak against the Gophers (7-11, 1-3) to 16 games, dating to the 1998-99 season, did all their damage before halftime and led by double digits for the last 27 minutes of the game.

Lawrence McKenzie had 17 points for Minnesota, which averaged 48.3 points while losing the last three to Wisconsin, Iowa and Illinois.

Dan Coleman added 15 points for the Gophers, who were outrebounded 37-27.

Brian Randle and Trent Meacham each added 12 points for the Illini, whose streak against Minnesota is the longest current run in the conference by any team against any opponent.

Gophers coach Jim Molinari earlier this week described the game as a matchup of two desperate teams, but only the Illini played like it.

Poor finishes by Illinois led to defeats against Xavier and Michigan, and a 14-point lead was wasted in a loss at Michigan State last weekend. The Illini built such a big advantage over a depleted opponent that another late lapse didn't ultimately matter.
