Indian Creek girls continue on skid

Coach Andi Ferris insists her team has a lot of good basketball left before the season ends. The Indian Creek girls basketball team has recently fallen on hard times, losing six of its past seven outings. The Braves (8-7, 3-2) dropped a 74-64 encounter Saturday to visiting Mid-Hoosier Conference leader Waldron. "We're still hanging together despite our recent setbacks," Ferris said. Indian Creek scoring leader freshman Kylee Hamilton topped the Braves with 21 points including five 3-pointers. Freshman Samantha White added 20 points. For Waldron (10-5, 6-1), sophomore Alison Soliday had a game-high 25 points and teammate Sharon Jackson scored 21. Next up for Indian Creek is a home conference game at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday against Triton Central.

Lancers cruise to win The Edinburgh girls basketball team registered its first Mid-Hoosier Conference win of the season beating Morristown 55-33 on the Yellowjackets' home floor Saturday. First-year coach Delena White's team got balanced scoring across the board with senior guard Heather Dowell knocking down a game-high 19 points. Freshman Courtney Drago had 10, Abby Weddle added nine, and freshman Emilee Owens scored eight points. Morristown (0-13, 0-7) was playing without injured starters Melissa Tillison and Chelsy Carlton. Edinburgh (3-11, 1-4) gets its next test Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. at home against conference foe South Decatur.

Mooreville captures Mid-State The streak is over. Winners of the past five Mid-State Conference Tournaments, the Franklin Community High School wrestling team finished a close second Saturday behind Mooresville. The Pioneers had a team score of 219.5 while the Grizzly Cubs were second at 213 points. Whiteland was third, and Greenwood was fifth. Mooresville had five tournament champions; Franklin and Whiteland had two. Franklin coach Bob Hasseman said the competition was fierce. "We were leading most of the day until the final matches when Mooresville edged by us."

Braves win swimming relays The Indian Creek girls swimming team outdistanced second-place finisher Cathedral 210-168 on Saturday at the Indian Creek relays. Whiteland was third with 158 points. The Braves finished first in the 200 yard medley relay; 150 kickboard relay; 800 freestyle relay; 500 crescendo relay; 1,000 freestyle relay; and 200 and 400 freestyle relays. Whiteland was first in the 200 medley relay and 1-meter diving. Indian Creek's swimming teams will be at Greensburg on Tuesday. Whiteland will host Franklin on Thursday.

NCAA BASKETBALL ROUNDUP

The Associated Press WOMEN No. 13 Purdue 73 Indiana 51 WEST LAFAYETTE — Sharon Versyp's emotions were working overtime. Katie Gearlds scored 20 points, FahKara Malone added 15 and No. 13 Purdue beat Indiana in Versyp's first game against her former team and nine players she either coached or recruited last year. The Boilermakers (16-3, 5-0 Big Ten), who lost at Mackey Arena when Versyp was the Indiana coach a year ago, never trailed this time. The Hoosiers (13-6, 2-4) managed two early ties before a 3-pointer by Malone started an 11-3 run that put Purdue in front for good.
