FRANKLIN COLLEGE BASKETBALL

Defense helps FC women win

By GREG DODDRIDGE
DAILY JOURNAL SPORTS CORRESPONDENT

The Hanover College women's basketball team has the worst record in the Heartland Collegiate Athletic Conference.

But for 32 minutes against Franklin on Wednesday, the visiting Panthers looked pretty good. They just couldn't finish strong.

After a 60-all tie with 8:12 remaining, the Grizzlies held Hanover to just six points the rest of the way, giving them a 75-66 victory against their conference rivals.

It was Franklin's 10th straight win against Hanover.

Franklin coach Kim Eiler applauded her team's finish.

"Our defense stepped up with turnovers at the end," Eiler said.

Franklin (12-6 overall, 6-4 in the conference) overcame a 12-point first-half deficit with efficient defense, limiting the Panthers to 28 second-half points.

On offense, Franklin senior guard Brittany Beehler and junior guard Courtney Swain led the effort with seven assists each. Beehler had 16 points, while Swain added 18 points, including four 3-pointers.

Even though Franklin pulled to within five at 38-33 at halftime, Eiler was not happy with her team spotting Hanover 12 points with five minutes left in the first half.

"We were better than that," Eiler said. "We didn't play good first-half defense."

Franklin came into the game with a 5-4 conference record and still in the hunt for the conference's postseason tournament. This season, only the top four teams in the regular-season standings will earn bids to the HCAC tourney. Franklin stood in fifth place before the win against Hanover.

"All of our four losses have been close," Eiler said. "They could've been ours. We will go game to game."

Meanwhile, Hanover continues its losing streak, now at eight games. The Panthers (2-16) are 0-10 and in last place in the conference. But Eiler didn't take their team lightly.

"Hanover is not a bad team," Eiler said. "Between Hanover and Franklin, it's a rivalry game. The records don't seem to matter. It's always a good game."

Sophomore Kristin Malone led Hanover with 19 points on 7-of-10 shooting.

Franklin's final six games in the conference don't get any easier.

They face all four of the top teams during their final six conference games. The next two games, both on the road, are at conference leaders Rose-Hulman and Manchester.

Wednesday's game with Hanover helps to show the parity in the conference.

"Any conference team can win on any night," Eiler said.

"Sometimes a road game isn't so bad. The court is still the court. You have to be more focused on the road."

Franklin plays at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday at Rose-Hulman.

FC men post third straight victory vs. Hanover

Special to the Daily Journal

HANOVER

Franklin College came through late in the second half to tally its third straight victory against rival Hanover College in a Heartland Collegiate Athletic Conference men's basketball matchup Wednesday.

The 73-57 victory moved Franklin to 6-4 in the HCAC and 10-8 overall, keeping the Grizzlies in the thick of a six-team battle for a spot in the upper division of the league standings. Hanover dropped to 5-5 in the HCAC and 10-9 overall.

Franklin had yet another game with balanced scoring, as the Grizzlies placed four players in double figures.

Senior guard Luke Tudor led the way with 19 points, and junior guard Jon Neill was close behind with 17. Freshman guard Jeff Gasser and sophomore forward

John Yochum added 12 and 10 points, respectively, for the Grizzlies, who led by five points at the intermission.

Robby Brown scored 12 points and had 10 rebounds to pace the Panthers.

Franklin, which outshot Hanover 52 to 39 percent, scored 22 points off turnovers to the Panthers' 10.

The Grizzlies will play host to Clarke College at 3 p.m. Saturday.
